General Conditions

Statutory regulations:

The event will be carried out in full compliance with DEFRA and other statutory regulations in place at the time.

All Livestock:

All entries must be tagged in accordance with current DEFRA regulations. Tag numbers must correspond with numbers on passports, pedigree certificates and in the catalogue.

Retags – must be reported to both Grassroots and the Market

Substitutes - not permitted. Any that do occur by special arrangement MUST be reported to the auctioneers and to Grassroots so that the correct animals are transferred and recorded in the market movement records.

All livestock must be transported in vehicles or trailers which comply with the law. There will be washing out facilities at the market (The cost of which will be included in the commission charges) All livestock must travel with the correct passports and licences. If in doubt please contact an Animal Health Officer at your local DEFRA offices.

Animals in transit, not entered into the event will be strictly prohibited

Swapping in the car park – this is ILLEGAL, and could get the market into trouble and you into serious trouble. Anyone caught will not be permitted to participate in future events. This has to be taken very seriously.

A limited amount of straw will be provided. Vendors must supply their own hay, additional straw and buckets.

It is the responsibility of the vendor to ensure their animals are presented for sale at the correct time. Animals will be sold strictly in catalogue order with the exception of breed champions in some breeds. (Please see individual breed information for details)

Responsibility:

All animals must be penned or stalled in the space allocated. Vendors are solely responsible for and in charge of their stock at all times whilst on the premises.

Reserve Prices:

Any reserve prices must be submitted to the auctioneers in writing prior to the sale of any lot.

Animal Health:

Vendors will be expected to ensure that their animals are in good health and, to the best of their knowledge free from infectious or contagious disease. The entry form includes a declaration to this effect, which must be signed.

Veterinary surgeons will be on call, in the event of their being required.

Entry to the sale carries a warranty of soundness from the vendor. In the case of sheep in respect of mouth, udder, testicles and that female sheep over 2 years have bred a lamb.

Society Inspections:

Some Breed Societies will carry out breed inspections and/or card grading. Please see your breed section or contact your Breed Society for details.

Rejected sheep may still be sold but must be clearly marked before the sale and declared at the time of the sale.

Cattle:

Cattle from 1 and 2yr TB parishes over 6 weeks old must be tested before entering the market. Cattle from 3 & 4yr parishes must be tested if the animal is to be sent to Scotland or Wales.

Females, then males in age order.

Any animal whose ear tag does not match that printed in the catalogue will be rejected from the event.

Cattle: Substitute lots may be accepted on a like for like basis - accompanied by a relevant veterinary certificate.

All entries must be accompanied by a pedigree certificate and where appropriate a copy of the AI/service certificate.

No calves under 7 months of age will be accepted as separate lots. All lots must have been weaned at least 2 weeks prior to the event and in the case of milking cows, must have been properly dried off.

All bulls over 10 months must be rung. No person under 16 years of age may have charge of a bull at any time.

No cross bred cattle or steers will be accepted.

All cattle in the halter section must be halter trained and be able to be led into the ring.

There will be an un-halter sections for all breeds.

White coats must be worn for showing cattle

Sheep:

Ewes then ewe lambs, rams then ram lambs. Vendor order will be selected at random by ballot

Rams will be sold individually through the ring.

Females will be sold in their pens 'off the boards' and may be offered in groups or as individuals. Vendors are encouraged to consider selling females in pairs or small matched groups.

The acceptance of all entries remains at the discretion of the auctioneers.

MV Accredited Sheep:

Provision will be made for MV accredited sheep. Please ensure the status of your flock is clearly marked on the entry forms and all the relevant certification is brought on the day, please send photocopy with entry form. It is the responsibility of the owner to ensure they follow the plans laid out in the market to safeguard the status of their livestock, which remains their responsibility at all times.

Scrapie Monitored Sheep:

Every effort will be made to accommodate MV accredited sheep which are also from Scrapie Monitored Flocks.

Pigs:

All British Lop entries may be sent to the British Lop Pig Society or be logged directly into the on line entry system. All entry fee payments must be forwarded to the British Lop Pig Society. All BPA pig entries may be sent to the BPA or be logged directly into the on line entry system. The event will be run under National Pig Auction Rules.

Each vendor may enter only ONE BOAR of a breed in any class. Every pig must be entered in the appropriate British Pig Association Herd book BEFORE ENTRY. Any pig which does not correspond with the catalogue entry or whose earmark is not clear and correct will be rejected.

All pigs will be inspected by a panel appointed by the British Pig Association. It is recommended that the vendor should be present when an inspection is carried out. All pigs will be expected to conform to the Standards of Excellence (copies of which are available from the BPA) for their breed and particular attention will be paid to the soundness and number of teats, the soundness of legs and size for age. Any pig which, in the opinion of the panel, does not so conform will not be eligible to be sold through the sale ring.

All pigs are entered for this event under BPA Rules and Regulations. All pigs are entered for sale subject to the National Pig Auction Rules. Copies available on request.

Paper entry forms and confirmation of on-line entries and all entry fees (payable to British Pig Association) must be sent to the BPA office.
